Management Report on Fund Performance

Results of Operations

For the six months ended July 31, 2006, the net asset value of the Fund was $23.21 per unit compared to $24.12 per unit at January 31, 2006. The Fund's Preferred shares, listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange as MUH.PR.A, closed on July 31, 2006 at $15.23 per share. The Fund's Class A shares, listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange as MUH.A, closed on July 31, 2006 at $7.86 per share.

Distributions totalling $0.43 per share were made to the Preferred shareholders during the first six months of the fiscal period, maintaining a 5.5 percent yield based on the initial price of the shares. Distributions totalling $0.60 per share were made to the Class A shareholders.

The U.S. dollar continued to underperform the Canadian dollar, which was lifted by strong commodity prices such as oil, gold, and copper. The Fund actively hedged its U.S. dollar exposure against fluctuations in the exchange rate for Canadian dollars.

The S&P/TSX 60 Index total return for six months ending July 31, 2006 was 0.1 percent. Returns for the first three months of this period were strong from the materials sector, which posted excellent results from strong price appreciation in commodities such as copper, zinc, nickel, and gold. Also contributing positively to the index return was the performance of the energy and industrial sectors. However, we did see a correction in the markets in May and June that essentially left the markets flat for this sixmonth period. In terms of foreign markets, the S&P 100 Index rose 1.7 percent in Canadian dollars. The six-month return for the Fund in Canadian dollars including distributions was 0.5 percent.

Recent Developments

Rising corporate profits and cash flows are expected to be supportive of Canadian equities in 2006. With continued above-trend GDP growth, moderate inflation and good liquidity, we expect positive returns from the markets. Recent economic reports from Europe and Japan have been encouraging, and with China and India showing no signs of a slowdown, we expect the commodity sectors to outperform, although perhaps not to the same extent as in 2005. With corporate cash flow strong around the world, this should fuel increased capital expenditures, share buybacks, and increased merger and acquisition activity in 2006. Risks to the market include rising interest rates, increased labour costs and high input prices potentially squeezing margins. Also, the flattening of the yield curve and increasing potential of yield curve inversion suggest the potential for an economic slowdown later in 2006 or 2007.

The Fund continues to be positioned with favourable exposure to the energy and materials sectors as we see such companies as EnCana Corporation, Imperial Oil Ltd., Suncor Energy Inc., and Teck Cominco Ltd. generating solid growth in earnings and cash flow going forward. Also within the materials sector, we are overweight in gold with exposure to such names as Glamis Gold Ltd. and Goldcorp Inc. Other sectors we have exposure to include industrials and financial services with such names as Canadian National Railway Company, Manulife Financial Corporation, The Toronto-Dominion Bank in Canada and Merrill Lynch & Co., Inc. in the U.S. In the technology sector, we are overweight within the U.S. market as the fundamentals appear stronger when compared to their Canadian counterparts. The names we have exposure to include Hewlett-Packard Company and Texas Instruments Incorporated.
